TAXES

All sales made directly from the artist to the client are exempt of VAT. (Article 293B of the code Code Général des Impôts)

Works of art are exonerated from the Impôt sur la Fortune.

Companies that purchase original works of art by living artists and display those works in an accessible location to either employees or the public for the period of the acquisition and for four years following can deduct the entire cost of the art work, in equal parts, over that year and the following four years. (Article 238bis du Code Général des Impôts)
